

Possible Ways of Constructing Log Cabin

All Log Cabins in the Avon® 4 Storage Range can be constructed with the windows along either the left or right wall. The partition wall can be placed inside the cabin anywhere between its front and back walls, (minimum width depends on window and door positions). The single solid door can be cut into either the back wall, side walls, or into the partition wall.

